Well run show with good facilities. Mineshop Dayleah looking very well running through with an am yield of 3.25kg. Reserve was a smart BT but was lacking in milk. Small numbers of youngstock at this early show.

Mineshop Dayleah an easy winner milking well and turned out immaculately. Very little to choose between Mineshop Chaila and Anjo Cally for reserve best in show. Being such an early show a lot of goats need a bit more time to gain condition, however, there were some excellent milk yields.

Montrue Mandela a bit over conditioned, nice dairy quality and fully mature easily won over the smart BT bucking Aughavey Bear which, however, had the better back end. This was the full extent of the show and so although I gave the certificates I do not think such a low entry really earns a CC.

Aughavey Annarose and Kindur Martini stood out in a small field. Annarose is a worthy daughter of Alamien, in nice working condition with a nice dairy feel, a good back end and capacious well filled udder. Martini is a substantial and worthy BS. Boghill Lily had the best udder after milking but had not the condition to challenge the top two. Mylerstow Mandiva one to watch, she is by the best male I see. Cowan family 2 and 4 legged youngsters shone on this rainy day. Very friendly show, thank you.

The Churchview herd took top honours with Churchview Salubrious in fine form running through. Reserve Best in Show was Kindur Martini who just needs a little more time to change her coat and gain more condition. Both animals are fine representatives of their breed. I would like to make special mention of the British Alpine goats present. This breed appears to be thriving in Northern Ireland. Youngstock from the Boghill herd are looking promising and shown in excellent condition.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

This is a wonderful show for promoting the excellence of the British Dairy Goat. However, due to the large number of absentees, the opportunity was not fully exploited. The location of the showground and the facilities provided should attract better support. An enjoyable show to judge with some top quality animals present.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Lovely show with super facilities and a very well-run goat section. My all white Best in Show line-up reflected the strength of the white goats in the area - the six of them looked a picture stood there together. Leatland Sonya continues to impress but Nightshaze Minx pushed her hard and will have a good season.
