JUDGES COMMENTS:

The BT male Linnavon Dill of good type and sound in all departments, good bone topline and clean whites. The AN buckling Candlemass Watkins very nice AN breed standard type, lovely head and well presented.

The male goat sections at the limited shows which now feature them have these days sadly become a non-event. So few animals being presented to make comparison (and tickets for what they are worth) can so easily be won if you just turn up and the frequently solo entrant has no obvious faults and conforms to the breed standard. Whilst the value of showing males has always been questioned it has nevertheless always been good to see them. Again, sadly the most important class "The Sire and Progeny" has never been well supported. No entries at this show either which is now almost the norm for Male and Youngstock shows nationally.

Is it not a time for the a rethink as show awards to Males are now rapidly devalued by demise and make a mockery of what historically was so high-prized and hard to win.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

The quality of milking animals in the breed classes was generally disappointing. The young stock however holds promise. Some very impressive kids especially, even at such an early show.

Strongest competition by far came from a very good class of 10 AOV milkers. Here we had good shaped udders, well fixed and pleasing yields. Top of the IP I placed the Nubian cross first kidder Ladeside Ladyrue, a large animal with good bone and level topline. She had a lovely silky and shapely vessel. Her range and scope was preferred to a more compact BT type first kidder running through Linnavon Calla who could so easily have been beaten for Reserve by the high yielding BS type Lovelsglen Donner had she been absolutely even in both halves of her udder.

This is a well run show with an excellent venue.

Very few males entered and forward at this show. Linnavon Dill is a well constructed British Toggenburg who impressed me with his bone and stature. Very early in the year for bucklings, both of which need time to mature, but show promise.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Some good yields and a strong AOV milker class characterised this early show. Lakeside Ladyrue impressed with her level topline, spring of rib and overall stature. Treval Yussi is a well-built goat, with a well attached udder, just needing a little more milk. Best and reserve goatlings from the Rogerian herd are good examples of their respective breeds with the BA Flikka, being preferred over the BS Crannish on her breed type. Best and reserve kids very well presented with Capitol Artemis being especially feminine and elegant. Encouraging to see so many young people involved with showing their goats in the breed classes, in the young handler classes and assisting with the running of the milking competition - keep up the good work!

JUDGES COMMENTS:

I am always very apprehensive when males are on-show to the general public but there were no such concerns at this show. The RWAS have invested in a range of superb pens for the males, which showed the animal off to advantage. There were some lovely males shown and it was just a case of weighting the breed-type of Wilowriver Tomicek against the over-all quality but immaturity of the Saanen buckling Sandcroft Regent. The HB kid, Wilowriver Vindicator, is well grown and well developed with sound limbs and feet.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

An excellent show at the start of the season; held inside a large spacious hall with good penning and a large ring. Some well filled classes, especially British Alpines, but I was disappointed in that the morning yields were somewhat low for an early show. The two top milkers were a delight, Mineshop Dayleah, a substantial BS with a well attached udder, milking well running through. Alailah Daintymaid is a large, upstanding BA-type AOV, not quite as good in her udder as Dayleah but milking extremely well. Mineshop Binita is a well grown AN goatling who I preferred for her breed type whilst I thought the BT kid, Ffawyddden Eliza, to be well grown, with excellent whites and full of promise.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Ladeside Ladyrue stood out as Best in Show, immaculately presented with a good milk yield for such an early show, followed closely by Linnavon Calla who was running through. Highest morning milk yield was Guilden Gwen, BT first kidder running through 4.55kgs. Some promising youngstock. A lovely well run show, wonderful hospitality and a pleasure to judge.

Not a lot of males present. It was a shame that the adult BT was extremely lame on the day which meant top prize in the class couldn't be awarded.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A lovely show, with some good goats forward. Ramside Tayari, caught my eye at udder inspection; she is a very sound BA, of good type with a well attached udder accompanied with great show ring presence. Lyncol Bettrina, turned out to perfection with great length. Best Goatling, a pure Toggenburg, had lovely confirmation with excellent whites. Best and Reserve Kids, both very smart. Great hospitality and a pleasure to judge.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Considering the bitterly cold, wet weather, all the goats looked very well, and there were some satisfactory yields. Mineshop Dayleah running through took the CC with Anjo Cordelia in reserve. The Anjo herd fielded a strong team of milkers and youngstock, and special mention should be made of Vicarshill Heatherbell who is a credit to the breed. Some promising goatlings which augers well for next year.

Show Results Booklet 2 - July 2016

A very enjoyable show - in spite of the weather - with excellent facilities, which deserves more support. Many thanks to everyone concerned for their very efficient help on the day.

Some lovely animals forward, Mineshop Dayleah looks much better running through this year. Anjo herd also shown in first class condition. Best & reserve goatlings well worth their positions and hopefully ones to watch next year. A pity there was not more than 9 kids to judge.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Three lovely goats headed the IP. All with excellent milk yields. Teilos Arian wearing and looking so well took top honours - she really has "presence" in the ring. A disappointing number of goatlings entered which doesn't bode well for the future, however, that shouldn't take anything away from the winners Ashdene Estella and Mineshop Maloe. Naypauls Blodwyn a super kid followed by the showy Ashdene Easter.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Top 3 in the IP line-up all worthy of a CC. On the day though Ashdene Meadowsweet shone and just flowed that little bit better than the two behind her. I feel she still has some maturing to do and can only get better. She was handled impeccably by Charlie Peck (no pun intended!) who was also on good form, especially considering how ill he was 9 months ago.
