The revitalised Royal Norfolk has good facilities and the dairy goat section displays for the public were excellent, a lot of effort had gone into making the marquee very interesting. The paternal half sisters Mineshop Dayleah and Mineshop Mulberrie could do with a little more size but they easily headed the field; Mulberrie has lovely quality but her udder now less balanced than Dayleah's. Monach and Wrotham herds put forward decent stock too, with both milk and show condition.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

It is always a pleasure to judge in Scotland but this was a disappointing entry. Whilst those animals that were awarded certificates were of merit it was a pity that there was an insubstantial element of "challenge" behind the awards.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A well supported show with good representation across the breeds. A lot of very good animals from the veteran to the kids and some very good yields evident. A strong IP which could have justifiably juggled for positions but the sun gleamed on a lovely BA Ramside Tayari who milked well, looked good and was shown to perfection. Top honours to her, with a sturdy well constructed AOV, Treflor Amara reserve, who also yielded well. Pleasure to judge a good class of Saanen Philday milkers. Some very good type and smart pure Toggs present but all need to find more milk. The Montrue and Lyncol herds were well represented in the prizewinners, some very promising youngstock for the future here and a lovely BT kid Aphrodite Saira won best kid in a most competitive and impressive line-up.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A very nice show to judge. Plenty of quality animals. BIS a quality BT adult male with strength and substance. Nice youngstock throughout. So glad that Mid-Essex Goat Club has started the male show again. The numbers present proved it was worth the effort and well done to those organising, especially to Pat Turner for the use of her grounds to hold the show.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

BIS Ashdene Calvinia was a good example of a British Toggenburg, with lovely topline and udder and giving a most creditable 3.90kgs at morning milking. A promising best kid in Cossin Ckathy and congratulations to a young exhibitor, Sam Owen, who had reserve with his kid Gallant Maple. A well run and friendly show.

High quality BT milker and AOV classes. I was surprised and disappointed not to have any BS milkers! Some very nice youngstock, particularly my best goatling. A well run and friendly show, which is worthy of more support.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A fully mature Kindur Mariah won on frame, locomotion and timber over Philday Follyrita who had however the better udder of the two. The Poundroll Toggenburgs were in fine form and fettle and out-milked everyone in the morning, many other yields being disappointing. The very correct Lindway Cymone easily won best goatling and super fine Ardross Flavour just pipped sturdy Poundroll Ashrosa in the kids. I liked the fit condition of the Nutbrook youngstock too. The Kinmea goats were shown and turned out immaculately. Joanne Smith runs a very good show and a highlight for me was catching up with old friends who no longer have goats.

Cheswell Kiora, a worthy winner, a well boned goat with good topline and well shaped udder, running through with an am yield of 2.85kgs, closely followed by her stablemate, Cheswell Kiara, both goats beautifully presented.

Some quality youngstock present with a very smart BT, Ffawydden Demelza taking Best Goatling, an eye-catching AN Klimova Polina, Best Kid.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A lovely show in a beautiful setting on the edge of Dartmoor, with as good an entry of high quality goats as I have seen this year. Ashdene Calvinia has matured into a fine animal and is in her prime. She was closely followed by Leatland Sonya, whom I have unfortunately had to make RBIS to two exceptional animals this year. Wilowriver Ultraviolet was Best Goatling and is a BA type AOV with the size, lacking in so many BA's these days, and the condition and elegance to catch the eye. Reserve was Leatland Button a lovely BS. Best of some strong kid classes were Cornpitts Lagertha and Cossin Ckathy, two outstanding animals.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Some extremely good goats in an IP line-up headed by Kindur Mariah - an AOV with good confirmation and shown in excellent condition. Mariah was closely followed by goats from the Philday (Saanens), the Poundroll (Toggenburgs), and the Charnocks (BT/AOV) herds. Wadehouse Ruby and Kinmea Summer, two very well turned out goatlings of good breed type. Poundroll Ashrosa and Kindur Gentian took my eye amongst the kids.

A lovely traditional show with great facilities, deserving better support. British Toggenburgs to the fore - Teilos Arian was hard pressed by Ashdene Calvinia in full show bloom but won the day by virtue of how well she carried her high yield. Ashdene Estella looks most promising.

Ashdene Calvinia done it for me, a sound animal with outstanding dairy qualities. Naypauls Bustle was outstanding as soon as it came into the ring it looked smart, a very well developed kid and in super condition.

A wonderful show to be asked to Judge, shows like this need all the support they can get to keep them going for years to come. Keep up the good work Michael and all your helpers.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A lovely show to judge with great hospitality and stewarding. Some lovely animals present, headed by the saanen Philday Follyrita (super udder conformation) and the very sound Treflor Amara. Some animals far too fat which impacted on the placings in the ring.
