JUDGES COMMENTS:

The show was dominated by the Treval, Churchview and Guilden herds. All their goats were presented in excellent condition and between them they took all the top awards. Primarily down to the stance and ring presence, Treval Ariadne just edged over her stable-mate, Yew on the day. Churchview Salubrious, a kidded kid, and Guilden Garlic are both very promising but need a little more time.

There was not the milk yields I would have liked in the animals of soundest conformation. Those performing better were either not in condition or not tight enough to the breed standard to score higher in the IP. Some very good youngstock in the Wadehouse goatlings and Charnocks kids.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Generally, and given that this was the National Breed Show, I was disappointed to see some animals displaying poor body and udder conformation and/or lacking in show condition. Breed section females tended to lack size and bone and one wonders if some carefully selected genes from other breeds might assist? On a brighter note, those animals that appeared in the Best In Show line up were well presented with excellent black/white; Maxson Shamuti, Biblin Zinnia and Brynglas Midas being the stand out exhibits on the day.

A modest entry but one that brimmed over with quality. Theban Camellia and Theban Cassius standing out over other exhibits of open CC standard. Breeders are to be congratulated for producing animals that combine dairy quality and superb udder conformation with size, substance and productivity. A pleasure to judge.

A shame about the numbers forward. Vicarshill Heatherbell is just lovely and with more milk could hold her own anywhere. With such a good venue this show deserves more support.

As the show is so far north, many goats were still in winter coats. BIS Balblair Haldana was a large BS in show condition and milking well. Otherwise yields were mostly disappointingly low. Promising kids in Balblair Helena and Balblair Hope. Few exhibitors but all very keen.

Montrue Maziwamto won on quality, range, frame, coat, skin, pasterns and locomotion over the pleasing Treval Yew who had stronger udder attachment and firmer topline. Lyncol Rahi a good working Saanen, showing a little wear. Three proper good goats. Somewhat further down standards sadly lower. John and Liz Orr deserve much praise for their continued selfless stewarding.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A wonderful show to judge with excellent stewarding, good facilities and some first class stock on show.

The happy and relaxed atmosphere ensured that everyone enjoyed the day. My grateful thanks to Jane Miller and her team of hard working volunteers.

Montrue Maziwamto looking and milking well again this year was a deserving best in show. She has the size and quality of a first class British Saanen. Reserve went to Treval Ariadne, a first kidder running through with a decent yield of milk. Montrue Meru and Treval Yew are also worthy of mention.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A most enjoyable well-run "old fashioned" agricultural show! Rouval Wyannalise, (AOV) a worthy winner, big upstanding with plenty of bone. Very well attached udder with 3.40kg am yield, running through for a 3rd year! Liked the breed type of Hetherton Merrymaid (BT) and Timyon Jenisatin (S). Best Goatling,

Booklet 4 September 2014

Jemaly Garnet (BS) and Best Kid, Jemaly Beryl (AOV) both sired by the same male. I also thought the AN kid, Hurstpier Romero to be most promising.

Booklet 4 September 2014

Aughavey Alamein won easily with her strong frame, good locomotion, feet, capacious udder and excellent yield. Kiddled kid Churchview Salubrious piped Kindur Martini on udder, colour and particularly frame. All in all they are 3 good goats and the general standard was good too. Churchview Sochi14 a tad forward but very charming.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Situated in lovely surroundings, this is always a very enjoyable show to judge. I particularly liked the top 3 goats in my IP line-up. They would have been very well placed in any mainland show. I also liked my Best Goating, Balmartin Sky and the Best Kid, Churchview Sochi - both very stylish and I will watch their progress with interest.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A beautiful day, some excellent exhibits and convivial atmosphere made this show a pleasure to judge. Theban Camellia, still gaining in stature as the season progresses, is a super example of a dairy goat. Teilos Arian, milking well from a very well attached udder just lacks the scope and elegant bone structure of her stable-mate. A good class of well presented BA milkers looking lovely in the sunshine. Some promising youngstock, most notable Ashdene Morgana
