JUDGES COMMENTS:

Males: Not many males forward, but but what were there were of good standard. All males were shown in lovely condition. Linnavon Dill a sound male.

Females: Some nice goats at the show, Hoemeacres Hannamay shone out from the 1st inspection in the morning. A big sound BS milker with bone, scope, good udder and well placed teats. Guilden Enya and Guilden Erin stood out in the young stock classes. Nice to see some young exhibitors at the show. Well done.

BIS Homeacres Hannamay who together with several other goats had very creditable yields. A bit early in the season this far north for smart summer coats but there is not a lot you can do about that. Some promising youngstock lead by Guilden Enya and Erin.

Females: Best In Show Homeacres Hannamay - good BS type and size. A sound goat of quality that does not look her five years especially is she's always milked this well (4.4kgs am yield). Ladeside Ladyria a worthy reserve - excellent am yield (3.7kgs) for a 1st kidder. Two Boer goatlings of high breed standard in the AOV class made it hard for Best goatling as close contenders.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A well run show in a lovely location. Kindur Martese Best In Show, a graceful, long well proportioned BS with a shapely udder. Reserve Best Maxson Shelac, a mature 1st kidder with plenty of milk carried in a well attached udder. Just lacking the condition and coat of the former. I just loved the Best Goatling Philday Venetia, stunningly pretty with an air of fairytale enchantment. Best Kid Wadehouse Ruby an extremely well grown BS full of quality.

Males: Only four males present all were of breed type and sound. All were clean but smelly. I do not approve of male goats being present in a warm tent full of spotless spotless female goats where the public then presume all goats smell and especially where they can touch the males.

Best In Show a very impressive BT first kidder running through with a 24 hour yield of 7.10kgs! Followed by two BS milkers, Mineshop Muskaan and Mineshop Mulberrie - both lovely goats but I just preferred the size and BS type of Muskaan. Excellent facilities and well run show. Excellent hospitality.

BEST FEMALE KID Lyncol Baridi, Res Montrue Mbuti

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Anjo milkers deservedly at top - neat, tidy, milked well. Would prefer a little more size though. Really liked BA and can see her at the top this season. Liked the Toggenburg a lot for type. Special mention of BS Montrue Perceive 4.95kgs am yield. BT Teilos Alicia 3.50kgs am running through. Philday Venetia goatling really took my fancy. Lyncol and Montrue youngster stood out for style and quality.

A great pleasure to judge the Royal Norfolk again. Very well stewarded - and the bowler hats stayed on despite the punishing heat. The Mineshop team looking and milking well, took top honours with Timyon Minisavi, who gave 4.5 in the morning, taking reserve. Special mention must be made of Vicarshill Heatherbell, looking and milking very well indeed. Some attractive youngstock. Many thanks to everyone involved in making the show such a success on the hottest July day on record.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

Another very warm day with 22c already in the goat tent at 6.am Mineshop Mulberrie a quality BS and worthy BIS, while reserve Vicarshill Heatherbell was undoubtedly the best Guernsey I have seen. Plenty of quality in the young stock. With friendly exhibitors and first class stewarding and hospitality, this was a rewarding show to judge.

Disappointingly low numbers with only one male present. However, great quality within the female section and a pleasure to judge. Mineshop Mulberrie - what I would call a nice manageable BS - gave 3.9kgs in the morning running through and was a worthy Best In Show.

Very disappointing turnout. Even for a minority breed 12 animals present does not constitute enough in my eyes, for National Breed Society status, especially when animals present were only of average quality.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

BIS Imported Chaviva is excellent AN type, with a lovely soft, well attached udder and milking well.

Excellent type AN won Best Goatling and Best Kid too. A high standard of goats present and a very, very well run show and good stewarding made it an enjoyable show to judge.
