JUDGES COMMENTS:

Reasonable entry of male goats in this day and age with most of the breeds represented.

I particularly liked Chesswell Chyanne, a smart BT with a good top line and deep body. Reserve was a BS, Rogerian Crannog, who just needs more time to develop a deeper body.

Rogerian Chevy (BS) and Rogerian Feddrah (BA) headed a nice line up of male kids.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

An excellent show to judge, efficiently run and with some beautiful stock to judge. It did not pass without incidents however, resulting in the need to call two ambulances! I am both pleased and relieved to report that the two exhibitors in question are now on the road to recovery. The last time I judged at this show I awoke to the dreadful news of the death of the Princess of Wales. Perhaps I should not be invited again!

Best in Show and reserve were outstanding. Guilden Erin is a large first kidder with a stunning udder and milking well running through. She was very closely followed by a large upstanding BT first kidder who was running through for the second year and also milking well. I am confident that Guilden Glory2nd has a wonderful future in the show ring ahead of her.

I was pleased to find a lovely team of pure Saanens from the Treflor herd.

AOV's as usual in Scotland, provided the greatest competition with Guilden, Ladeside and Lovelsglen Herds offering a challenge to the judge.
