JUDGES COMMENTS:

An excellent show with a large entry of high quality animals. I have followed Cossin Why's show career since she was a kid having made her best kid and best goatling over recent years. It was therefore a great pleasure to see how she turned out as a milker. She is full of quality, in excellent condition and possesses a very good udder which is well filled. Reserve was the evergreen Leatland Sonya, wearing well and growing old gracefully. I was delighted to see so many high quality British Alpines and all in lovely condition. The whole of the AOV milkers class deserves mention with four of the top of the IP line up coming from this class.

Best and reserve best goatlings Cossin Ckathy and Cornpitts Lagertha promise well for next year and the best kid and reserve were two BA type AOV kids. Both extremely smart and difficult to separate.
