JUDGES COMMENTS:

A very good entry with only a few absentees. An extremely well organised show. Ashdene Morgana is a very smart AOV, milking well. She will look even better later in the season with a new summer coat. She possesses a very good, well filled udder with neat teats and has a good deep body and wide spring of ribs. Reserve best in show went to Mineshop Chenai who is a large first kidder AN with a good front attachment. Kerborne Verity looking better than ever and milking well was also a strong contender for best in show. It was a pleasure to see a good turn out of quality pure Toggs - all of good type. Young stock were generally good which gives good promise for the future.
