JUDGES COMMENTS:

Established in 1836, Fermanagh County Show has an excellent pedigree, but only this year holds its first BGS-recognised show. Given the relatively small number of goats on the Northern Ireland circuit there was nonetheless an encouraging entry. Despite only 8 milkers in inspection, all available awards were given on merit, such was the quality of exhibits. Special mention must go to the top three goats in the IPCC line up - Aughavey Annafreid, Corrinshog Heidi and Kerryjo Azaria who would hold their heads up at any show in the UK and Ireland. Goatlings and kids impressive and promising.
