JUDGES COMMENTS:

Oh what a lovely autumnal morning, with a crisp feel in the air, the sight of Ashdene Meadowpipit walking into the ring with her lovely full udder gave me a warm glow. It's not very often you see a goat with what is in my mind an outstanding udder, in shape, attachment rear and fore and teats well placed and of balanced size for udder. She does need a little more time to mature, but for an animal of not yet 2 years of age, she was more than able to hold her own in the excellent company of her stablemate Ashdene Almond. Although some of the classes were low in numbers the standard of the stock made up for that. A truly lovely show, thanks for the welcome.
