JUDGES COMMENTS:

Only a handful of males present which, unfortunately, is pretty much par for the course these days. However, the males I presented awards to were all of good quality and all four bucklings were promising. Ardross Glenclara just pipped Mineshop Aaron for the CC, having a touch more length. But what was more worrying than the lack of males was the paucity of female youngstock present, considering it was August. Not that I desperately wanted classes of 20 kids, but a few more would have been welcome!
