JUDGES COMMENTS:

I first judged Ashdene Almond as a newly kidded 1st kidder when I awarded her the Res CC; had she been in better coat that day she most probably would have been awarded the CC. The second time I judged her was at this show and I see she has developed into an outstanding AN milker. Full of breed type with an excellent udder which gave 3.90kgs am milking, six months after kidding. Reserve to her was the 1st kidder BT, Cornpitts Lola, superbly show by her young owner/breeder. She just flowed under the hand, again so full of breed type with a well attached, silky udder with neat teats giving 3.10kgs am milking, six months after kidding. The Ashdene youngstock took three of the four main awards, all well grown and superbly presented.
