JUDGES COMMENTS:

Good to be back at a goat show after more than 2 years and, surprisingly, to re-unite with some stewards from my very early years of exhibiting goats. A good entry of high quality goats was headed by Ashdene Minskip, who is an outstanding first kidder with a beautiful udder, good yield and in peak condition. She is named after the village in Yorkshire where Miss Mostyn-Owen lived and, fortunately, is an animal that she would have been proud to own. Reserve was Ashdene Calypso, an elegant and very productive animal. I must make special mention of Ramside Tayari, who at 9 years old still graced the IP and demonstrated the value of good conformation on longevity. Chatterbox Lilac stood out amongst the goatlings and Hurstpier Fineal reserve. Best of some strong kid classes were Chatterbox Mimosa and Ashdene Meadowquest, both very promising.
