JUDGES COMMENTS:

Very small entry which is not surprising given the remoteness of this part of the world. Treflor Beautyson is a smart, well grown promising BT buckling. Wedgewood Aston is a fine example of the BA breed and should have a good future. It was a great shame that following an accident by his owner, Agnes Aitken, they had to leave the show early. I am delighted to say that thankfully Agnes recovered well following a night in hospital.

Always a pleasure to judge at Ayr. However, the Show was held following the recent death of Maureen Cain, a great advocate for goat keeping and a stalwart of the show. We shall miss her. The market facilities are particularly good, and the stewarding is of a high standard. A reasonable entry for this part of the world with some quality animals present. Best in Show was a lovely BS milker, Treval Yentl. She is milking well and in beautiful condition. Reserve went to a very nice AOV, Capitol Freja, who is a long-bodied goat with a very good udder. Carrick Ailish is a stylish BA with a particularly good udder.

Best goatling was Treval Arabelle, a well grown AOV show in perfect condition. Reserve was a lovely BA, Carrick Alanis.
