JUDGES COMMENTS:

Gallant Artemis has a lovely udder which is level, wide and well attached. She has a good yield and was shown in excellent condition. Both she, and the RBIS Acton Replica, have very similar attributes and are built to last. Very pleasing to see an "Acton" goat at the top of the line again. Special mention of Landsmead Tigerrose is deserved, who at 8 years old can still provide stiff competition to much younger animals and demonstrates the value of good conformation on longevity. Nightshaze Scarletta is a very mature, rangy animal in top condition and stood out amongst the goatlings. Cornpitts Lydith was reserve, just lacking in maturity. Best in kid classes were Gallant Magpie and Gorsefield Mystery, both very promising.
