JUDGES COMMENTS:

Super little show in a fab new location made to feel very welcome.

Some classes had several absentees owing to one exhibitor not managing to get to the show, however I still had some quality animals representing the breeds on the day.

BIS was a lovely BS who won over her competition for her condition and overall quality on the day.

The Reserve was a 1st kidder BA who just lacked the maturity and condition of the winner but clearly was milking very well.

Of the few goatlings I had the 2 Ardross BS's stood out.

The kids were headed by a lovely stylish BT kid with a "look at me" attitude and natural show presence.

A number of 1st kidders looking very promising and with some running through or kidding again I hope to see them have a good 2023 season.
