JUDGES COMMENTS:

Rather late in the season for males and this was reflected by the very small entry. However, Wedgewood Aston is a very smart large upstanding buckling and I am sure will mature into a very smart adult. The two male kids forward also show promise for the future.

JUDGES COMMENTS:

A shame about the number of absentees but whilst short on numbers the quality was definitely there. Capitol Freja, my Best in Show, was a really nice, large, first kidder with a lovely line, plenty of width and a good udder with sufficient milk. The future of Goatkeeping in Scotland, at least, looks good as it was very encouraging to see that there were quite a few keen and able youngsters both showing and milking.
