JUDGES COMMENTS:

Lovely to be back at Alresford, this time as a judge rather than as an exhibitor. Set in the grounds of Tichborne Park, the show has a traditional country show atmosphere.

The low number of exhibits was more than compensated for by the quality on display. Ashdene Minskip continues to impress with her stature, type and beautiful udder. The BT first kidders Ashdene Capella and Ashdene Candyfloss were difficult to split on the day, with Capella edging over Candyfloss on her maturity and yield. In the youngstock classes, Ashdene Meadowquest was an easy choice for best goatling - her type, size and bone are superb. Ashdene Allspice has elegance, presence and style. The reserves from both youngstock sections came from the Hanlibill herd. Two well grown British Alpines in great condition with the size and ranginess the breed standard requires.
