BEST MALE KID Rowangate Thruppence,

Judge's Comments:

Whilst I awarded the CC to a perfectly sound and good type Anglo Nubian adult male, Kaverquil Montigue, it was not with the enthusiasm which on reflection, I had enjoyed so many times in the past. He was the solo adult present at the show and likewise I had present only one male kid. My thoughts of how difficult in competition it used to be, to get a BGS rosette with a male goat, or a BCC, left a hollow disappointment. Not for just the beginning of this show season I may add since this has become a trend of decline over more than a decade. In the absence of competition what is the satisfaction of the award? "Well it bothered to turn up" argument doesn't appease me!

We need a serious society rethink on the merits of showing male goats and herein lays the open doorway to the linear assessment route, coupled with the achievements of their daughters, to create awards of any value to both breeders and future studies of the herd book.

The most important class at any male and youngstock show "The Sire & Progeny" has never in my memory ever had the support needed to allow any evaluation of sires. (Reader's thoughts to the Journal please).

Judge's Comments:

First show of the season in Scotland. Treval Herd to the fore front in terms of both condition and yields. Preference was for the length of the smart black and white AOV Alison over a sound BS Apple. Two very nice animals both impeccably presented. Had the AOV first kidder Linnavon Laelia been into coat she would have topped the line. (The voice of the late Joy Paine echoed in my head that "they must be right all round on the day if you're putting them at the top of the IP.") A magnificent udder and a goat with a great future I am sure.

Anglo Nubian class produced some commendable yields but udder connections need improvement and those with somewhat tidier vessels lacked the charisma or standard expected of the breed.

Early show so youngstock sparse. Treval Amani a smart BT goatling needing to develop further and a very good type. AN kid Ballingall Tansy has it all ahead of her.

Sincere thanks to Anne Dick for all her work in running this show and her loyalty to the Ayrshire Goat Club over so many years in service to its' members.
