Judges Comments:

In a show dominated numerically by ANs and BTs it was the AOV Ballingall Roxy who shone on the day. This large, rangy, showy BT-type first kidder pipped the impressive and higher-yielding Guilden Glory10th to the post. With a high standard of turnout across all classes, of note must be the class of 10 AN kids, a tribute to the enthusiasm of aficionados of the breed. A very small turnout of males with Ashdene Actor a worthy winner. A well run show with good facilities and excellent hospitality from the show organisers.
