Judge's Comments:

A good entry was badly affected by the Blue Tongue Regulations, which resulted in a number of reduced classes. Nevertheless there were some high quality goats to judge headed by Ashdene Clarissa. She is an outstanding first kidder with great length, a beautiful udder, good yield and in peak condition. Reserve was Ashdene Maidwell, another very productive first kidder, immaculately presented. Ashdene Campari is a striking goatling and stood out amongst the goatlings with Hurstpier Chloe a close reserve. Best of some very small kid classes were Ashdene Matilda and Ashdene Maidofhonour, both very promising. Although the milker classes were conventional, the goatling and kid classes had "or Type" added. This resulted in no AOV classes, and to the unaware, the possibility of an apparently miss-marked animal winning.

A well run show with excellent hospitality and very enjoyable to judge.
