Judge's Comments:

As per the norm there were very few males attending but my Best and Reserve were two cracking boys both cut from the same quality cloth which is unsurprising seeing as they are father and son. I hate this expression but they really could have gone either way on the day but the younger Ashdene Merit just not quite relaxing and showing his self off to his best ability so lost out to the extra length displayed on his sire.

Some quality young stock with my Diploma awarded to a very well grown and quality BT goatling Ashdene Campari.
