Judge's Comments:

A very pleasant show to judge and very well organised with good stewarding. It was very hard to split the best and reserve as they both had strong merits – however on the day I felt that Dalestone Britney had the edge over Charnocks Bronelker due to her youthfulness at 8 years old and running through giving 3.1kg. That takes nothing away from a very impressive first kidder in reserve. I would like to mention the commentary which was very good and very informative for the public and it also holds people's attention on the goat showing as well as answering their questions. Perhaps it should be considered for other shows as an aid to promoting dairy goats.
