Judge's Comments:

Twin sisters were best and reserve milkers at this early September show. I preferred Delphine on her femininity and finesse. She flows from head to tail and has plenty of dairy quality about her. Both goats were worthy winners with decent yields for early September.

The best goatling, Wilowriver Echo oozed quality. In full show bloom, I particularly liked the way she flowed from her neat shoulders into a capacious body. Spurway Medici, my reserve best goatling, has plenty of bone, style and substance.

The best and reserve kids are half-sisters, both of whom were very well grown with good length and elegance, with Cossin Whyknott having particularly strong hind quarters.
